MORE PAY FOR TEACHERS

Superintendent William Allison Says That Higher Scale Must Be Established.

Superintendent William Allison of the city schools proved himself the champion of higher salaries for the grade teachers at the meeting of the board of education last evening. The question came before the board on the request of the superintendent that a minimum and maximum salary be adopted, with the maximum large enough to induce the teachers to increase their efficiency. He employed in this way he held that the standard of the school system would be raised. Mr. Allison made a strong plea and said that at the present time there were other grade teachers who were receiving $100 a month. He said that the teachers of Ogden were the most poorly paid of any in the state and that considerable difficulty was encountered in getting teachers to fill the positions at the present time.

The board virtually decided to consider the matter at a subsequent meeting, although it was understood that the board would pay what all that the board could afford according to the amount of money at its command.

A spirited discussion also took place in connection with establishing a department in the city schools to cure children of summering. This matter came up on an application of a man who claims to be able to cure that trouble among children. The board took no definite action in connection with the matter.

The superintendent's monthly report showed an enrollment of 4,742, with an average daily attendance of 3,310. The percentage of punctuality was shown to be 83, with forty-seven children absent from school on account of contagious diseases.

The finance committee reported $27,287 on hand. The report of the sanitary committee showed five cases of diphtheria, two of smallpox and two of spinal meningitis.

SUIT BECAUSE OF SUIT.

G. W. Alvord Wants Damages Resulting From Litigation.

Ogden W. Alvord filed in the district court yesterday a complaint against A. R. Smith and James P. Pingle, in which he seeks damages which Alvord alleges he sustained.

The complaint alleges that on April 21, 1906, Smith instituted a suit against Alvord and upon Smith filing his bond with James Pingle as surety, he obtained an injunction restraining Alvord from digging a certain ditch which Alvord was digging on his premises, which adjoins Smith's on the east of a large area of his land of water; that by reason of the issuing of the injunction Alvord was compelled to stop digging the ditch, and his land remained unimproved with water and wholly unfit for cultivation; that in October, 1906, the case was heard in the district court and judgment was entered in favor of Alvord, dissolving the injunction; that subsequently Smith appealed from the judgment of the district court, and the case was taken to the supreme court and the injunction was stayed and remained in force during all the time, preventing Alvord from completing the ditch; that the case was argued and submitted in the supreme court on Oct. 15, 1906, and the court rendered its judgment on Dec. 11, 1906, affirming the district court and forever dissolving the injunction.

That by reason of the injunction having been wrongfully issued and wrongfully set in force, Alvord was prevented from completing the ditch, thereby draining a large area of his land, and that he has been prevented from cultivating the same since the injunction was issued; and, after the injunction was issued, Smith cut a number of trees adjoining Alvord's premises and buried them upon Alvord's land, thereby demolishing the fence and obstructing Alvord's driveway; also that Alvord was compelled to employ an attorney to defend the proceedings in the supreme court, for which services he expended $250, whereby he claims $250 damages against Smith and his bondsmen, James Pingle, who are both made defendants. Joseph Chee is attorney for W. Alvord.

Sent to Asylum.

D. J. Moore of this city has been pronounced insane and will be sent to the mental hospital at Provo today. Moore was employed as a railroad brakeman and a short time ago secured a lay-off. With his wife he took a trip to Nevada. A few days before they returned, Moore showed signs of becoming demented. On Thursday he became violent and was taken into custody. Since that time he has been rational at times and at other times he was quite violent. During the four years he has been confined at the head and again two years ago he suffered a second injury, also to the head. It is believed that these are the cause of his present condition.

Young Man's Sudden Death.

Paul W. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, who live at 551 Twenty-third street, died at Lakeside early yesterday morning. He was 15 years of age. He was slightly indisposed on Thursday, but was not thought that anything serious was the matter. He grew worse at an alarming rate, however, and died before a physician could be got to him. The cause of death has so far baffled the physicians and it may be necessary to hold an autopsy to determine the cause.

COMMERCIAL CLUB'S WORK.

Kaysville Body Has Made Change in City Since Organization One Year Ago.

Kaysville, March 15.—There was an enthusiastic meeting of the members of the Kaysville Commercial club last evening, at which Vice President Hymen Stewart presided in the absence of the president, John G. M. Barnes. Mr. Stewart addressed the members and mentioned the several movements that have been fostered by the club since its organization a year ago. Among the things accomplished he spoke of the Davis county fair held last fall, which proved to be a very successful undertaking, and said the local club was first to move along that line. He referred to the establishment of the Kaysville Brick company's plant here, and said this was an industry that will be of great benefit to Kaysville. In regard to matters now being worked out by the club, Mr. Stewart said that waterworks for the city are being urged, and the city council, with a committee of the club associated, are taking preliminary steps looking to the installing of a water system. Electric lights have received attention, and while it is not at all certain how soon they will be installed, the club still has the matter in hand and after the waterworks question is solved it may not be so difficult to get lights. The opening of the road to connect West Kaysville with the town was mentioned as another project of the club.

After Mr. Stewart's address the club members proceeded to elect four new directors, three to serve three years each, and one to fill the unexpired term of R. W. Barnes. Those elected were Dr. Sumner Gleason for the unexpired term; Hymen Stewart, John C. Owen and Christopher Burton, Jr., for three-year terms.

In the general discussion of civic improvements that followed it was decided that the club petition the city council to levy a special tax on abutting property for sidewalk improvement; that an effort be made to awaken popular interest in the planting of shade trees and ornamental trees and in the better care of fences and sidewalks; and that stringent measures be taken to prevent the willful destruction of trees, fences and other property by mischievous boys. These matters will be taken up by the club directors.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Ida M. Kelly were held this afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bennett. Mr. Kelly arrived here from Yerington, Nev., last midnight, after a hazardous journey through storms on the desert. He was almost broken hearted, as he had thought his wife was recovering since he was here to see her three weeks ago. At the services today the speakers were John W. Gaudy, Burton, Peter Barton, C. Burton, Jr., and Henry H. Blood. There was a large attendance. The interment was in the Kaysville cemetery.

Word comes from Farmington of the very serious illness of James R. Millard, one of the oldest men in that place.

Members of the family of Mrs. Elizabeth Robins are afflicted with diphtheria, and the family residence has been quarantined. It is learned that the disease is not of a virulent type and the patients are doing well.

Myron W. Phillips of Kaysville and Miss Garnet Chamberlain of Salt Lake are to be married next Wednesday in the Salt Lake temple. They will make their home in Salt Lake.

SENATOR SMOOT HONORED.

Provo Citizens Tender Him Reception at Opera House—Deliver an Address.

Provo, March 14.—A large number of citizens attended the reception given in honor of Senator Smoot last night in the opera house. The stage was beautifully decorated with flags and bunting and cut and potted plants, and a picture of Senator Smoot was placed in front of the speaker's stand. A motto, "Victory for Utah and the Constitution," was displayed over the front of the proscenium, and a painting of Liberty, carrying in one hand a lighted torch and in the other a Bible (the work of Lorin Covington of the Brigham Young university), was prominently displayed at the back of the stage. The stage was occupied by Senator Smoot, Hon. John Henry Smith, Le Roy Armstrong and many prominent Provo leaders and gentlemen. W. Lester Mangum officiated as toastmaster.

Judge J. W. N. Whitecotton delivered an eloquent address of welcome, explaining the reason for the public reception, viz.: That Senator Smoot had conducted a contest for religious liberty and constitutional rights, and that, therefore, his victory was a victory for all, regardless of creed or politics.

Senator Smoot made an appreciative response, in which he spoke of the support the loyalty of the people of his city and state had been to him in the four years contest. Reference was made by the senator to local conditions, in an appeal for peace, but peace with honor. For the future he hoped the people of the state would remain honest, true and loyal to the state, the country and to God.

Telegrams of regrets at being unable to attend and offering congratulations, were read from Governor Cutler and Senator Sutherland. An excellent musical program and readings by Miss Miriam Selk were rendered. Most of the audience shook hands with the senator and offered personal felicitations at the close of the program.

BADLY AFFLICTED WITH ECZEMA

For More Than Two Years—Tries Physicians, Patent Remedies, Old Women and Quack Cures and Found No Relief.

USES CUTICURA AND IS SOON SOUND AND WELL

"I was very badly afflicted with eczema for more than two years. The parts affected were my hands below the knees. I tried all the physicians in the town and some in the surrounding towns, and I also tried all the patent remedies that I heard of, besides all the cures advised by old women and quacks, and found no relief whatever until I commenced using the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent. In the Cuticura Remedies I found immediate relief, and was soon sound and well. C. V. Beltz, Tippecanoe, Ind., Nov. 15, '05."

DANDRUFF KILLS HAIR

Cuticura Soap Kills Dandruff

"I was troubled with dandruff on my head ever since I was twelve years old. I had beautiful hair up to that time. The dandruff destroyed my hair. I tried everything I could hear of. I had no doctor, but I went into a drug store where I was well acquainted and asked the druggist if he knew of anything that would be good for me. He said: 'Of course I do. Just get a cake of Cuticura Soap.' I got it, and it did my hair good the first time I used it. My sister-in-law couldn't keep the dandruff off the top of her baby's head, and the hair wouldn't grow. I was there, had a cake of Cuticura Soap with me. I told her about it, and gave her the Cuticura Soap, and in about three months I went there again, the child's head was covered with hair and not a sign of dandruff. My sister said it was the Cuticura Soap. The child is not past three years old and has a lovely head of hair. Mrs. E. W. Shigley, Columbus, Kan., Oct. 25, 1905."
